

Day 1: Arrival and Exploration

- Morning: Arrive in Denver and check into your hotel. Spend the morning settling in and exploring the local area.
- Lunch: Head to Ototo for lunch. Ototo's dedication to real Japanese cooking and its cozy dining atmosphere make it a perfect start to your culinary journey in Denver. The robata grill and the fresh sashimi are must-tries.
- Afternoon: Visit the Denver Botanic Gardens to enjoy the beautiful plant collections and outdoor art.
- Dinner: Experience dinner at Chubby Cattle. The all-you-can-eat BBQ with American, Australian, and Japanese A5 Wagyu beef, along with the unique food belt and a great selection of Japanese beer and sake, offers a memorable dining experience. Remember, it might be busy, so consider booking in advance or be prepared for a wait.

Day 2: City Adventures

- Morning: Start your day with a visit to the Denver Art Museum, featuring a wide range of art collections.
- Lunch: Enjoy lunch at Gyu-Kaku, where you can grill your own food right at your table. The "For 2 people" package is a great choice to sample a variety of flavors. Don't miss their Happy Hour for some great deals.
- Afternoon: Explore the historic Union Station and its surrounding neighborhood, offering shopping and sightseeing opportunities.
- Dinner: Dine at Blue Sushi Sake Grill for dinner. The Itchy Salmon and Truffle Salmon are highly recommended for their burst of flavors and luxurious taste. The overall dining experience here is rated exceptionally well.

Day 3: Just Relax

- Morning: Enjoy a leisurely morning or visit the Denver Museum of Nature & Science for some educational fun.
- Lunch: Have lunch at Sushi Kazu, where you can enjoy genuine Japanese dishes prepared by the owner, originally from Osaka. The authenticity and quality of the sushi and sashimi here are unparalleled.

- Afternoon: Spend your afternoon at the Cherry Creek Shopping Center for some last-minute shopping or simply relax in one of the nearby parks.
- Dinner: Conclude your trip with dinner at Sushi Bay 17. The inviting vibe and attentive service, along with fresh sushi and sashimi, make for a perfect end to your Denver visit.
